Clarification Questions: May 15, 2015 – 2nd sheet

The following questions have been posted to the Park City Website and emailed to those that hold an RFP.

Is there flexibility regarding the business liability insurance coverage stipulated in the RFP of $2 million per occurrence and $4 million aggregate? $1 million/$2 million seems standard for our type of consulting firm and is what we now have.

Please propose what you would prefer, insurance- wise. Also lay out how it might change your fee if you had to get higher insurance. Construction projects are absolute, but consulting contracts are a bit more flexible.
