coachklane@gmail.com

Kristin Certified Corrective Exercise Specialist, Personal Trainer, Mountain Bike Coach, Ski Instructor. I consider myself a "Coach", rather than a "Personal Trainer" and I pride myself on communication and an ability to connect on multiple levels of my client's lives - not just fitness. I specialize in Functional Training, teaching clients how to move better and then move more often and with more efficiency - this works to improve enjoyment and quality of life. My clients are people who want to achieve better performance in skiing, cycling, or golf, individuals of all ages who are recovering from orthopedic surgery, or people who just want to finally learn "how" to workout. My ultimate goal of my work is for my clients to not need me - I am here to improve people.

Jack Skille

608-469-6681
jack@jackskille.com

Jack is a retired professional hockey player of 14 seasons (7 NHL, 3 AHL, 4 EU & Russia combined). Jack is a student of movement and specializes in functional movement training. To constantly integrate multiple planes of motion in his training is Jack's goal, whether to help others regain mobility & daily functional strength or to be used for athletic development is dependent on the individual/group.

Janet Miller
