F252

C. Grantor and Grantee desire to create an easement for secondary vehicular access purposes upon Grantor's Property for the benefit of Grantee's Property in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

Agreement

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and benefits contained herein and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Grant of Secondary Access Easement. Subject to all of the terms and conditions hereof and to existing easements and restrictions of record, Grantor, as owner of Grantor's Property, hereby grants to Grantee, as the owner and for the benefit of Grantee's Property, a perpetual, non-exclusive easement upon and across the vehicular and ski trails (collectively, "Trails") located on Grantor's Property (the "Easement"), as the same may exist from time to time. Currently, such Trails are located as generally shown on Exhibit C, attached hereto and made a part hereof. The Easement is granted for the purpose of secondary vehicular and equipment access to Grantee's Property ("Secondary Access") in connection with construction and reconstruction activities; provided, however, that such access shall be limited to access by vehicles and equipment for purposes which cannot reasonably be served by the normal, primary means of access to Grantee's Property ("Primary Access").

2. Notice and Consent. Grantee shall not enter upon the Easement except upon reasonable prior notice to and with the written consent of Grantor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Grantee acknowledges that access may not be available from time to time due to construction and/or maintenance activities on Grantor's Property.

3. Grantee's Use. Grantee shall not allow any smoking or other fire on the Easement in connection with Grantee's use, and shall exercise due regard for, and shall avoid unnecessary interference with and disturbance of, Grantor's use of Grantor's Property and any residence or other building that may be located thereon.

4. Grantor's Use. Grantor shall not construct improvements, plant trees or shrubs or otherwise modify the Easement in a manner which would prevent Grantee's use of the Easement for secondary vehicular access purposes. Grantor shall otherwise be free to landscape and use the Easement for all lawful purposes. Grantor may install fences with gates across the Easement to control access to Grantor's property, provided that Grantor provides to Grantee a key or combination to any lock placed on the gates.

5. Reclamation and Restoration by Grantee. Grantee shall not have any right to grade, improve or change the surface contours of the Easement, and Grantee shall promptly repair and restore any damage caused by Grantee's use of the Easement.

6. Relocation of Easement. Grantor reserves the right to amend this Agreement to relocate the Easement to another location on Grantor's Property by recording and delivering to Grantee a notice of relocation setting forth the new legal description of the Easement; provided that the new location provides reasonable secondary vehicular access to Grantee's Property.

7. Limitations. Grantee's use of the Easement for construction and reconstruction purposes shall be limited to delivery and construction vehicles, equipment and loads which are too large or cumbersome to use the Primary Access.

8. Grantee's Indemnity. Grantee shall use the Easement and exercise all of Grantee's rights hereunder at Grantee's sole risk and expense. Grantee shall indemnify, defend and hold Grantor harmless from and against all claims and liabilities, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or related to Grantee's use of the Easement.

9. Covenants Running with the Land. The parties hereby declare the rights, benefits and obligations contained herein to be covenants running with, benefiting and burdening Grantor's Property and Grantee's Property. Upon the conveyance by either party or by any successor of either party of all of such party's interest in Grantor's Property or Grantee's Property, as applicable, the rights and obligations of the conveying party shall automatically pass to and bind the new owner, and the conveying party shall not be liable for any obligations accruing hereunder after the effective date of the conveyance.

10. Miscellaneous Provisions.

(a) This Agreement embodies the entire understanding among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

(b) This Agreement shall be recorded in the office of the Summit County Recorder, Summit County, Utah.

(c) This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts. Each such counterpart hereof shall be deemed to be an original instrument, but all such counterparts together shall constitute but one agreement.

(d) Each individual executing this Agreement in a representative capacity represents and warrants to the other parties that he/she has been duly authorized to execute and deliver this Agreement in the capacity and for the entity set forth above his/her signature.

(e) The exhibit(s) attached to this Agreement are expressly made a part of this Agreement as fully as though completely set forth in it. All references to this Agreement shall be deemed to refer to and include all such exhibits.

(f) This Agreement shall be deemed effective as of the date hereof and upon the execution of this Agreement by all of the parties hereto.

(g) Time is of the essence in the performance by the parties hereto of the terms, covenants and conditions under this Agreement.

(h) Each party hereto agrees that should it default in any of the covenants or agreements contained herein, the defaulting party shall pay all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, which may arise or accrue from enforcing this Agreement, or in pursuing any remedy provided hereunder or by the statutes or other law of the State of Utah, whether such remedy is pursued by filing a suit or otherwise and whether such costs and expenses are incurred with or without suit or before or after judgment. A waiver by any party of a breach of any term or condition of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any further breach of a term or condition.

(i) The parties hereto agree to execute any and all other documents and to take any further actions reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.
