- D. The Design Professional shall submit to the City Manager or his designee on forms approved by the City Manager, an invoice for services rendered during the pay period. The City shall make payment to the Design Professional within thirty (30) days thereafter. Requests for more rapid payment will be considered if a discount is offered for early payment. The Design Professional shall permit the City or its designated authorized representative to audit and inspect other data relating to all matters covered by this Agreement. The City may, at its discretion, conduct an audit at its expense, using its own or outside auditors, of the Design Professional's activities, which relate directly or indirectly to this Agreement.

The burden of claiming an exemption from disclosure rests solely with Design Professional. Any materials for which Design Professional claims a privilege from disclosure based on business confidentiality shall be submitted marked as "confidential - business confidentiality" and accompanied by a concise statement from Design Professional of reasons supporting its claim of business confidentiality. Generally, GRAMA only protects against the disclosure of trade secrets or commercial information that could reasonably be expected to result in unfair competitive injury. Design Professional specifically waives any claims against the City related to any disclosure of materials pursuant to GRAMA.

5. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIP.

- C. If such claims are caused by or result from the concurrent negligence of the City, its agents, employees, and officers, this indemnity provision shall be valid and enforceable to the extent of the Design Professional's breach of contract, negligence, recklessness, or intentional misconduct; or the Design Professional's subconsultant's or subcontractor's negligence.
