

ID REQUIRED

Utah Election Laws now require every voter to provide valid voter identification before being allowed to vote.

If the voter is unable to provide such identification, they will be required to vote a Provisional Ballot and will have five (5) days following Election Day to provide valid voter identification to the County Clerk to make their provisional ballot

Please show (1) of the following:

- Valid Utah driver license
- ID card issued by the state; a branch, department, or agency of the US government
- Utah concealed weapon permit
- US Passport; or Tribal ID card

Two (2) of the following showing name, at least one of them must list current address voter's residence:

- Current utility bill
- Bank or financial statement
- Certified birth certificate
- Social Security card
- Check issued by the state or federal government
- Paycheck from voter's employer
- Current Utah hunting or fishing license
- Current US military ID card
- Certified naturalization document
- Currently valid license issued by an authorized agency of the US
- Certified copy of court records showing adoption or name change
- Bureau of Indian Affairs card;
- Valid Medicaid, Medicare, or Electronic Benefits Transfer Card
- Current ID card issued by local government within Utah, an employer, college, or professional school
- Currently valid vehicle registration;