City Manager Considering a Move to Hermosa Beach, CA

Hermosa Beach City Council scheduled to vote on hiring Tom Bakaly as City Manager

Park City, Utah – July 19, 2012

After 17 years in Park City, 10 years as City Manager, Tom Bakaly and his family are planning to move to Hermosa Beach, California in early September. The Mayor and City Council are sad but proud to announce the pending appointment of City Manager Tom Bakaly to the position of City Manager of Hermosa Beach, California. The Hermosa Beach City Council is scheduled to vote on Tuesday night (July 24th) to make Tom Bakaly the new City Manager of Hermosa Beach.

Mayor Dana Williams stated, “We wish to thank Tom and his family for their many years of service to Park City, and congratulate him on his new position.” During Tom's tenure the City has adopted a team management structure, weathered the economic downturn, secured a long-term agreement with the Sundance Film Festival, acquired valuable open space, instituted many new programs and services desired by our community, upgraded City buildings and infrastructure, and crafted new budget processes that are strategic and community vision driven.

Tom Bakaly stated, “I want to thank the Mayor and Park City Council, the Park City Municipal staff and the Park City community for teaching me what being a community means. Park City is a special place and Pam, Henry and I will be taking Park City with us wherever we go.”
